

TAP – LISA LA TOUCHE

Originally from Calgary, Alberta and based in New York City, is a highly regarded and sought after dancer, teach and choreographer.

Lisa's credits include being an original cast member of SHUFFLE ALONG on BROADWAY choreographed by Savion Glover and directed by George C. Wolfe. She appeared on the 70th annual TONY Awards and Maya & Marty on NBC and became recipient of both the Fred Astaire award for "Outstanding Ensemble in a Broadway show" and the A.C.C.A. Actor's Equity Award for "Outstanding Broadway Chorus". She also appeared as a principal dancer in Amazon's Original TV series Z- The Beginning of Everything starring Christina Ricci, with choreography by John Carrafa.

Previous highlights have also included touring with Savion Glover his production STEPZ, and also performing in both New York's Off-Broadway and the North American touring casts of STOMP. She was also in the original ensemble of Dormeshia Sumbry-Edwards "Sophisticated Ladies" where they performed weekly at The Cotton Club in Harlem and also a member of Jason Samuel Smith's company A.C.G.I.

Lisa continues to perform, choreograph and teach world-wide and has worked endlessly North America, London, Germany, Switzerland, China, Japan, Brazil, etc and appears at endless festivals and conventions. Most recent endeavors include a month residency teaching at the Hinton Battle Dance Academy in Tokyo nurturing the development of their dancers' tap dance education. She was a proud faculty member of the School of Jacob's pillow under the direction of her mentor Dianne Walker, has been a guest at both The Juilliard School, New York University and the Joffrey Ballet School. She appears as guest faculty at Broadway Dance Center and is currently artist in residence at The American Tap Dance Foundation in New York City and loves sharing her passion within eager up and coming professionals of all ages. She is currently expanding her artistry and studying in-depth the craft of acting at Susan Batson Studios, and works with vocal coaches Shelton Becton and Susan Eichborn Young. She believes whole heartedly that we are all to trust and follow our inspirations and welcome a journey of unlimited opportunities. Please visit www.lisalatouche.com